

THE SHELDON MEMORIAL LECTURE 2015

by Edward Waterson

WALTER BRIERLEY

1862–1926

UNLOCKING THE ARCHITECTURAL LEGACY

The best known Arts and Crafts architect in the North of England, Walter Brierley, came to York at the age of twenty-three and made an immediate impact on the City. He brought freshness and innovation to its schools, banks, private houses and churches in a way that has not been seen since. This lecture will consider the man, his prodigious output and his legacy.

The Lecture will take place in The Merchant Adventurers' Hall, Fossgate, York, on Tuesday 24th March 2015 at 7.00 p.m.

Admission is strictly by ticket only. Tickets cost £5 including a glass of wine or soft drink.

The Lecture is promoted by the Sheldon Memorial Trust. Tickets may be obtained by sending a stamped addressed envelope to the Secretary of the Trust at 21 School Lane, Copmanthorpe, York YO23 3SQ, before 7th March 2015 with a cheque for £5 per ticket payable to the Sheldon Memorial Trust. Tickets will be issued on a first-come first-served basis.

Application slip

Please send me tickets for the Sheldon Memorial Lecture on Tuesday 24th March 2015. I enclose cheque for £

Name:

Telephone No:

Address:

Email:

Post Code: